

IVF Summary Sentences

Summary Verbs	Example 1
	Identify the Item.	Select a Verb.	Finish Your Thought.
acknowledges	The book Painless Public Speaking by Sharon Bower	offers	a number of practical hints for people who are afraid of speaking in front of a group.
adds	The book Painless Public Speaking by Sharon Bower offers a number of practical hints for people who are afraid of speaking in front of a group.
asks
clarifies
confirms
confronts
compares
critiques
demonstrates
describes
encourages
endorses
entertains
enumerates
explains
explores
features
furnishes
gives identifies illustrates
invites
lists
names
offers
praises
presents
provides proposes recommends
shows
suggests
supports
teaches
tells
traces

Example 1

Identify the Item.

The book Painless Public Speaking by Sharon Bower

Select a Verb.

offers

Finish Your Thought.

a number of practical hints for people who are afraid of speaking in front of a group.

The book Painless Public Speaking by Sharon Bower offers a number of practical hints for people who are afraid of speaking in front of a group.

Example 2

Identify the Item.

"Where Did IV Come From?" by Carl Sagan

Select a Verb.

demonstrates

Finish Your Thought.

the importance of providing funds for scientific research.

"Where Did IV Come From?" by Carl Sagan demonstrates the importance of providing funds for scientific research.

Example 3

Identify the Item.

Unit Seven, "Our Environment," in the social studies book

Select a Verb.

explains

Finish Your Thought.

what can be done to prevent and to repair damage done to our environment.

Unit Seven, "Our Environment," in the social studies book explains what can be done to prevent and to repair damage done to our environment.

Example 4

Identify the Item.

Emily Dickinson's poem "I'm Nobody! Who Are You?"

Select a Verb.

compares

Finish Your Thought.

life in the public eye with life as an ordinary person.

Emily Dickinson's poem "I'm Nobody! Who Are You?" compares life in the public eye with life as an ordinary person.